Webinar on Next Generation Leaders: Time to Rise

31st July 2021

Vociferous Vocationals organized an enlightening webinar on "Next Generation Leaders" by Mr. Mohammad Shams Aalam Shaikh who's:

- One of the 300 most influential people in Asia
- Limca and India book of records holder, twice!
- 4 times Gold Winner at the National Para Swimming Championship 2018
- Dedicated and strong TEDx speaker

During the session he thoroughly motivated the students by revealing the journey of his life and the fact that his family is his greatest pillar. He talked about how his brothers were in the leather business, which was the only source of income for the family when they first moved to Mumbai in the small town of Madhosk in Mudhubani for higher education. During that time, Shams Sir's sister always supported him and that support gave him the motivation to pursue his career as a Paraplegic Swimmer. He talked about how himself only is his greatest source of motivation and how 'Believe in yourself' mantra always worked for him. Sir also mentioned some ways you can stay in sync and focus towards your goals during difficult times of COVID.

His words clearly had a great impact on our minds and we were all able to reflect on ourselves. His speech gave us the motivation to take firm steps towards what we wish to pursue and his suggestions have greatly motivated us to do what we want to.
